

27 August 2005

Dear Friends,

We are finally in Ireland and appreciate you praying for safety, stamina, and wisdom as we made the commute. All of our flights went well. First we flew from Boise to Chicago then on to Frankfurt Germany where we had a nine hour layover. The trip from Germany to Ireland only took about two hours.

Our first day was spent looking for an apartment and trying to catch up on sleep. Tomorrow we will be driving to Athlone to visit a church on the interior of the Island. Thanks again for continuing to pray and support us here.

Sincerely,

Dean & Julia Langley